Are you interested in a career in Advice Work?

Island Advice Centre and Tower Hamlets Homes are facilitating an exciting opportunity for residents in Tower Hamlets who want to train to become advice workers.

We're offering a work placement and training scheme to help you improve your employment prospects. You will:

- Attend a formal training course one day a week to learn about advice work, welfare benefits, housing, employment and debt
- Get work experience one day a week at one of our partner advice agencies in Tower Hamlets

To apply for this exciting opportunity, you must be:

- A resident of Tower Hamlets, not in full time education, and not working more than 16 hours per week
- Available for a minimum of two days a week for one year
- Available to start training in September 2015

Please download an application form from www.thh.org.uk and email it to: jo.ellis@island-advice.org.uk

Closing Date: 5pm Friday 14th August
Information session: 11am Tuesday 18th August

This is a voluntary work placement/training scheme – trainees are not paid. However trainees will obtain work experience, excellent training and improve prospects of obtaining a fulfilling and satisfying job in the future. Travel/lunch expenses are paid by the placement agency and according to their own individual policies.
